Denver Foundation honored to be among winners of the Hermes Creative Awards 2019.

Denver, CO—The Foundation received a Platinum award for the 2017 Annual Report, and a Gold award for the Winter 2018-19 issue of Give Magazine, a bi-annual publication with a circulation of nearly 60,000.

Through high-quality photography, writing, and design, as well as a diverse and inclusive approach to storytelling, both publications reflect The Denver Foundation's mission of inspiring people and mobilizing resources to strengthen our community.

Hermes Creative Awards recognizes outstanding work in the industry while promoting the philanthropic nature of marketing and communication professionals. There are expected to be over 6,000 entries from throughout the United States, Canada, and dozens of other countries in the Hermes Creative Awards 2019 competition.

Foundations and nonprofits, corporate marketing and communication departments, advertising agencies, PR firms, design shops, production companies, and freelancers compete in the Hermes Creative Awards, which are administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals (www.amcpros.com). The international organization consists of several thousand marketing, communication, advertising, public relations, media production and freelance professionals. AMCP oversees awards and recognition programs, provides judges and rewards outstanding achievement and service to the profession.
